

Warning About Peripheral Neuropathy

Pain, numbness, tingling, and burning in your feet are extremely annoying problems. They may come and go... interrupt your sleep...adversely affect your daily life. Your legs may seem weak and unstable causing balance problems and concern about falling when you walk.

If You Read Nothing Else, Read This:

More than 20 million Americans suffer from peripheral neuropathy, a problem caused by damage to the nerves that supply your arms and legs.

This painful condition interferes with your body's ability to transmit messages to your muscles, skin, joints, or internal organs. If ignored or mistreated, neuropathy can lead to irreversible health conditions.

Why not get help by those trained to correct the major cause of peripheral neuropathy. Read the full facts on this page.

More Pills Are Not the Solution

More often than not your doctor will prescribe drugs that may temporarily reduce your symptoms. These drugs are primarily anti-seizure or anti-depressants. They include Lyrica, Cymbatta, Nueurontin and Gabapentin. All have serious side effects including irregular heartbeat, suicide and memory loss.

The Likely Cause of Your Problem

Often, neuropathy is caused by a combination of problems. A main problem is degeneration of the spine, damaging the nerves that go to the feet and hands. A contributing cause is the lack of blood flow to the nerves causing them to degenerate due to lack of nutrient flow. By themselves or in combination, these factors cause the nerves to shrivel and die leading to your symptoms... interrupting your life.

My name is Dr. Steven Sorbera of Sorbera Pain and Wellness. I became a Chiropractor and have been helping people with neuropathy, nerve problems and back pain for more than 16 years.

Using advanced technology, I'm able to release the pressure that has built up on the nerves. This allows the nerve to heal and the symptoms go away. Numerous studies have proven chiropractic's effectiveness in helping nerve conditions.

Patients showed an 85.5% resolution of the nerve and pain symptoms after only 9 chiropractic treatments. — Journal of Chiropractic Medicine 2008

“Significant increase in grip strength and normalization of motor and sensory latencies were noted. Orthopedic tests were negative . Symptoms dissipated.” — JMPT 1994

What these studies mean is that you could soon be enjoying life... without those aggravating nerve or pain problems.
